Dear Dr. Winnifred B Cutler,

I would like to sincerely thank you for sponsoring me at PFEW. The camp was an invaluable business, leadership, and bonding experience. In this one week, I experienced more than I ever thought possible. Not only did I gain extremely valuable knowledge about business and the private enterprise system, I was able to meet and befriend people from across the state and nation. My time at PFEW was very unique in that I was very lucky to be elected CEO of my company. This gave me the amazing opportunity to experience both the financial and marketing side of real world business while taking on a new and special leadership position. From making quarterly decisions to crying and laughing from the mind blowing speakers I was privileged to hear, PFEW has been an unforgettable experience. Thank you again for giving me this truly amazing opportunity. I encourage you to continue to sponsor the program so that future students may share the life changing week that I am so grateful to have had.

Sincerely,

Rachel Ma,
